Rules and Regulations

2022 BBQ Cook Off

American Petroleum Institute – Victoria Chapter sanctions this event with all rules for judging as written by this organization.

Teams

Teams shall consist of 1 team captain and no more than 3 other cooks. Team captains are responsible for the conduct of the team and all its members, guests, and invitees. Everyone must follow the rules of this event as well as the rules for the Brackenridge Event Center. Teams and their guests who violate the rules may be asked to leave and your entry fees will not be refunded. Excessive use of alcohol will be grounds for disqualification. No refunds will be given for a disqualification. Teams may not offer, sell, or donate alcoholic beverages to the public.

Check in time on Friday will be from 2:00pm to 6:00pm. All entry fees should be paid by the time the team checks in. The BBQ Cook Off committee members will check in all meats for the cook off. Once your meats have been checked in by the committee, you may season, marinate, etc. as you wish.

Quiet time starts at midnight. Please be aware of your neighbors and fellow competitors. Teams may have music playing but we ask that you be respectful of others around your site.

Site spaces are available through Brackenridge Park and all the team's equipment must fit inside your rented space. No vehicles may be parked around the space after the team has set up. Please use the designated parking at the event center. Teams must rent their own spot at Brackenridge. Please contact the event center prior to the event to secure your space. Please limit your space rental to 2 spaces max.

Mules and side by sides are allowed but drivers need to be safe when utilizing them. No speeding!! No underage drivers. No 4 wheelers allowed. Dogs are allowed but must be kept on a leash at all times or safely secured and away from the public to ensure no one is harmed by an animal. Victoria API, its members, or directors are not responsible for any animal injuries to anyone.

Victoria API reserves the right to make additional rules and regulations as the situation warrants. Decisions of the Victoria API are FINAL. Victoria API, its members or directors are not responsible for any damages or theft to equipment and is not responsible for bodily injury.

Categories for the competition are as follows:

Friday Evening:

Cooks Choice	Cost: $25/entry
Margaritas	Cost: $25/entry
Dessert	Cost: $25/entry

Saturday Cook Off:

Beef Brisket	Cost: $250 (brisket, chicken, ribs)
Chicken	(Team Entry Includes $25 API Fee)
Pork Ribs (Baby back or St. Louis Style)
Kids Cook – Ribeye Steak	Cost: $25/entry
Beans	Cost: $25/entry

Cook Off Rules – Friday Evening:

Cooks Choice (Friday evening) will be the choice of the team. The Cooks Choice submission will be judged on appearance and taste. You may garnish the Cooks Choice submission. Be prepared to hand out samples to the crowd. Anyone is allowed to cook in the Cooks Choice event. It may be a team or an individual.

Margarita competition will consist of your choice/flavor of margarita. You can submit a frozen or on the rocks margarita but be aware that a frozen margarita may sit a bit before it is judged. Submissions will be judged on appearance and taste. You may garnish/accessorize your submission. Samples of margaritas should not be passed out to the crowd unless they are over 21. The team will be responsible for ensuring legal age for consuming alcoholic beverages.

The Dessert Competition is open to anyone. Entrants may cook it at the event or prior to the event.

Turn in times are as follows:

Cooks Choice – 7:30pm

Margaritas - 8:00pm

Dessert – 8:30pm

Cook Off Rules – Saturday:

Team Ropers will be ready for lunch from 11:00am – 1:00pm. All cook off teams will prepare something to serve to the team ropers. It can be anything you like but it should be enough for 40-50 people. More details will follow at the cooks meeting.

All competitors will bring their own meat to the site RAW...no pre-marinating, pre-cooking, or pre-seasoning prior to official start time. Teams may cook with sauce, marinades, sop, or juice but none of these can be added to the final submission container for judging. No garnishments of any kind or marking of containers. (These rules don't apply for the Cooks Choice submission on Friday evening)

The team captain or his/her representative is REQUIRED to be present at the cooks meeting on Saturday morning (11/19/22) at 8:30am. Rules will be outlined, and any other information will be addressed at this time. All judging trays will be handed out at this time. Teams are responsible for their submission trays. Do not lose or damage them or put any markings on them. The ticket that is taped to the tray MUST BE ON IT AT THE TIME OF SUBMISSION. If it is missing or damaged the entry will be disqualified. No refunds will be given on disqualified entries.

Teams are to prepare and cook barbeque in as sanitary a manner as possible. Cooking conditions are subject to inspection by the Victoria API. In the event of an unsanitary condition, the Victoria API will work with the team to resolve the situation. If the situation cannot be resolved, the team may be disqualified.

No gas or electric fires are allowed. No holes or dug pits will be allowed. Burn barrels or like containers should be off the ground and entirely enclosed – no open ends. Each team should have a fire extinguisher available to prevent incidents.

Kids Cook Rules – children up to 12 years old may enter this competition. The child must season/prepare their own ribeye steak and they must cook it on their own. An adult can supervise but the adult cannot handle, season, or cook the entry. Adults may assist with starting or stoking the fire for safety reasons. The child may cook on the same pit a cook off team has used. An adult can accompany the child to turn in his/her entry, but the child must turn it in.

Contest meats should be delivered to the designated judging location. Contest meats will be judged on Saturday, November 19, 2022.

Turn in times are as follows:

Pinto Beans – 11:00am. Teams will turn in one (1) 16oz cup of beans. The fill line is the lip of the cup.

Chicken – turn in time is 12:00pm. Teams should turn in ½ chicken.

Pork Ribs – turn in time is 1:00pm. Teams should turn in 8 ribs with each rib cut for judges to sample. Do not turn in a rack of 8 ribs.

Brisket – turn in time is 2:00pm. Teams should turn in 8 full slices of brisket cut ¼" to 3/8" per slice.

Kids Cook – Ribeye Steak – turn in time is 2:30pm. Ribeye should be whole and uncut. No sauces or garnishes should be in the tray.

Winners will be announced at 4:00pm.
